

B3D Webinars: Face-to-Face Workshop Planning

BID Community Think
Tank

2014/01/24

1

Webinar Panel

Ashok Goel	Co-director of CBID at Georgia Tech
Catalina Freixas	Assistant Professor, Washington University of St. Louis
Fil Salustri	Professor of Mechanical Engineering at Ryerson University
Janice McDougall	Partner at Goodman, McDougall & Associates Ltd.
Margo Farnsworth	President/CEO, Screendoor consulting
Randy Anway	Owner, New Tapestry LLC
Shoshanah Jacobs	Assistant Professor, University of Guelph

2

Webinar Audience

Janet Kübler

Lecturer, California State
University Northridge

3

Goals of B3D Workshops

- Build consensus
- Increase breadth
- Increase depth
- Encourage research
- Drive action/practice
- Increase energy

4

Workshop Proposal

- Face-to-face
- Regional
- Centered around academic institutions
 - Credibility
 - Participants
 - Logistics
- Connected (local/global)

5

Proposed Workshop Agenda

- Institution highlights
- Keynote
- Open Space Technology (OST) kick-off
 - Need a theme to encourage “passion bounded by responsibility”
- OST working sessions and presentations
- Next steps/action plans

6

The 'Null Hypothesis'

This is just another example of
'analysis/paralysis'

7

Let the Discussion Begin!

Strengths

Opportunities

Aspirations

Results

8

Announcements

Biomimicry and Planetary Boundaries

Hosted by Taryn Mead

February 13/2014

07:00 PST, 08:00 MST, 09:00 CST, 10:00 EST,
15:00 UTC, 16:00 CEST and 17:00 EEST

9

B3D Webinars: Face-to-Face Workshop Planning

BID Community Think
Tank

2014/01/24

10